One Hundred Miners Discharged for Upholding a Labor Leader. THE PITTSBURG EPISCOPAL DIOCESE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATOR.] BETHLEHEM. June 10. - Mrs. Adam. Wuchter, of Whitehall, who, on Good Friday of last year, took to her bed, with a stomach trouble, and who was reputed to have fasted for a considerable period at that time, is still living, though she is nothing but a mass of skin and bones.

Her convulsions returned a few days ago, which made her so very weak that her attendants think the end cannot be very far off. Her case has attracted a great deal of attention, and it is said she does not eat to this day, but merely places the food in her mouth for a few moments and then rejects it.

BURIED TREASURE FOUND

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 10.—Great excitement prevails amous the people of Kershaw over the finding of $183,000 in gold and other val-uable treasure which were buried in that neighborhood 24 years ago when Sherman's army was passing through South Carolina. The officers of the Camden Bank collected army was passing through South Carolina. The officers of the Camden Bank collected the money and jewelry and brought it near Hanging Rock creek, Kershaw county, to bury it. They were captured by Sherman's men and forced to give up their treasure. The soldiers in turn appointed one of their own number, named Rhodes, to bury it. Among the treasures was a gold pitcher presented by the ladies of Charleston to Calhoun. On his deathbed a few days afterward Rhodes said he had buried the money near an old mill, a short distance from the mouth of Hanging Rock creek, and dictated a desoriptive letter for Colonel William E. Johnson, of Camden, S. C.

For the past 20 years various parties have been digging for the buried treasure, but without success. Last Friday night, however, it was secured by a Mr. Rhodes, brother of the man who buried it, and a Mr. Swaggart, both Northern men. The work of digging was done altogether in the night time. These men were seen on Friday afternoon with a half-bushel satchel on a stick across their shoulders. Several citizens of Kershaw have seen the hole from which the money was excavated. Rhodes and Swaggart have disappeared.
